Some programs also require the Graduate Record Examination (GRE), a diversity statement, writing samples, portfolio and/or interview; visit our website to explore program-specific requirements.
Application Fee Waiver Program
U.S. Citizens and Permanent Residents are eligible to apply for an application fee waiver based on financial hardship or participation in various research programs.

Financial Support
All PhD students receive full financial support for all years of regular program enrollment. For masters’ programs, please contact the department for more information.

Campus Housing
~70% of enrolled graduate students live in campus housing and are a part of our residential life community. Housing options include dormitory-style, furnished rooms in the historic Graduate College or apartment living.

Visitation Programs
The Access, Diversity & Inclusion team holds a fall Prospective PhD Preview (P3) and a number of departments host visit programs to experience academic life on campus and network with students, faculty, and Graduate School administrators.

Location
Princeton University is conveniently located between two major cities: New York City (54 miles, 1h20m) and Philadelphia (45 miles, 1h), both easily accessible via I-95 or New Jersey Transit from campus.
